During he whole of the canvass thus far they have rung their changes upon but one note, "Kansas and slavery." They justify it on the ground that the North has the numerical majority. And since the design of the party is interference with the affairs of individual States, and those Southern, the South is necessarily and effectually excluded from enjoying the Democratic principle that the majority shall govern, unless willing to become a party to a warfare upon itself and its own institutions and property, which, right or wrong, no others have the right to interfere with. The election of Mr. Fremont is but a stepping-stone in progress. The leaders declare that they intend yet morethat Mr. Fremont and his administration are to be but agents, instruments, through whom they design to carry on a more extended scheme of aggression upon the South. There can be but one opinion upon this point. Mr. Fremont will not be allowed to stand still. He will not behis own master. The managers of his administration will be the men who have so disastrously succeeded in banding the North together for a thern crusade. Senator Hale declares that Fremont's election will be a step in the direction of general emancipation. Kansas and the Territories are but a small part of the plan of this cam-object in the election of Fremont is to lay the foundation of a policy that shall emancipate three the Constitution, or it will work the subversion of the Constitution, with its own overthrow. And, more recently yet, speaker Banks declares that the North must begin to govern more—which means to stand where they stood in 1850-'53-'54 in defence of the South must come down on its marrow bones and humbly acknowledge allegiance to the Black Republicans. He alluded to the bogus old dominant power of the North seeking the overexistence from a period older than the revolution, recognized and acquiesced in at the forma-

N. rulers of Louisville was no doubt prompted by the knowledge that a committee of the Democratic party had requested a conference from a like number of gentlemen of the K. N. party, for the purpose of devising some measures to protect the right of suffrage in the city. This is the very last thing our City Fathers desire to see done, and hence they have forestalled the action of the committee by empowering their partiasa Chief of Polace to appoint a police to preserve order on the day of election. Every man, with two ideas, knows, that the City Council expect him to appoint Know Nothings bruisers and bullies—men who, instead of protecting the right of suffrage, would, in fact, constitute the nucleus of a mob to violate it.

We suppose this action of the Council will be offered as an excuse by the Know Nothings to prevent any other arrangements to secure a peaceful election. It was certainly taken by the Gouncil with that view. We shalf wait, however, and see.

The Germans every where—we mean the Germans of foreign birth—are every where moving for Fremont.—Commonwealth.

It is time this fabrication had ceased. The result of the elections in Pennsylvania and Indiana ought to leach the Commonwealth that this story is entirely unfounded.

> Agreeable to appointment a large crowd of our citizens assembled at the Court House to see and hear the Bayard of the Kentucky Democracy, Hon. Beverly L. Clarke.

At precisely 1 o'clock he rose upon the stand, a man from head to foot, and for more than two hours enchained his audience by one of the most powerful and masterly speeches ever delivered in this part of Kentucky. I should do him injustice to attempt a detailed account of his manly effort, but must be pardoned for some brief allusions to some passages.

After reviewing in a clear and lucid manner

the positions of the respective contending par-ties, and showing that the election of the Black spublican ticket would be the death knell of institutional liberty in this Republic, he said that such a calamity must be averted; we have the power to do it, and he trusted and believed that no patriot would slumber upon his post, but that ach and every one would rally around the standard of the constitution and the Union. His speech was dignified and respectful to all. He clearly proved that Mr. Fillmore's platform committed him to none of the great issues involved in this contest, that he had no earthly hone or foundation of a policy that shall emancipate three millions and a half of slaves. And another Senator still, Mr. Seward, chimes in with these very bold ave-wals of the designs of his party, and friend of his in Kentucky to rally around the gally around the gall says, upon Mr. Fremont's election, slavery will last standard bearers of the great national debe overthrown, either peacefully and lawfully under mocracy, as the only shield and safeguard of the mocracy, as the only shield and safeguard of the ion-mark me many in this section will

He reminded them of the damning epitaph inscribed upon the tombs of the Whig party and their gallant leader in tion, recognized and acquiesced in at the formation of the Union, and protected by the solemn provisions of the Constitution.

To may take my judgment for it that immense gains may be confidently expected in every county in which our glorious Clarke has spoken. The people love and believe him, because they know him true.

His beautiful compliment to the patriotism of the mountains, at once shows the heart of the

This impudence—it can not be truly called by any other name—reminds us of an anecdote we heard some time. The first of a varyant who, was taken up in Naw. vagrant who was taken up in New York. When he reached the Work House, he remonstrated most lustily an said that he and Old Astor could raise more money than any other two men in the whole of New York.

"That is very true," responded the loafer "but Old Astor has a pile." Soit is with the American party. Fillmore has nt got a single State, but old Buck has a pile. Democracy can never form that spartnership .-For Heaven's sake stop such nonsense.

SATURDAY :::::: :OCTOBER 18, 1856 Gov. Willard, Of Indiana, will address the Democracy of Louisville TO-NIGHT, from the balcony of the Galt House. This announcement, we are sure, will carry the whole city to hear him.

THANKSGIVING DAY .- The Governor of Maine has joined with the Governors of Maryland and Missouri in designating the 20th of November as thanksgiving day.

EXTREMES WILL MEET .- Among the passengers on the train to St. Louis on Monday night were two men of very unequal proportions—the weight of one was over four hundred pounds and of the other less than seventy pounds. They were on their way to the great fair at St. Louis.

MELANCHOLY AFFAIR .- At the Fillmore ball in Washington, Daviess county, Ind., on Friday night, a Mr. Merchant, of Petersburg, fell from the window in the second story, and was so seriously injured as to cause his death the next morning. It is supposed that he had gone to sleep while seated at the window.

During the excitement at the Mechanics' Pair last night, a frightened individual jumped through the head-band of a bed-stead. It was less than 2,000 over Hoffman, Black Republiso highly polished that he took it for a window. We understand that during the panic

The New Albany Tribune dies very hard. It attributes the defeat of the Abolition ticket in Indiana to the "foreign hordes." On the other hand, the Know Nothing papers in the South are declaring that the foreigners are all Freesoilers

IFMr. Joseph Darr, an attachee of the Cincin nati Enquirer was in the city yesterday. He was attending the Agricultural Fair, Mechanics' Institute, &c., and seeing the sights generally. He thinks Louisville "pretty much of a place."

A panic was created at the Institute last night by the sinking of the front gallery about VER'S CAMEER AND SALT RHEUM SYRUP AND CE- a foot, and the severing of the gas pipe, which put out all the light. Of course, the ladies were very much alarmed. We are happy to state, however, that no one was hurt.

The defect will be remedied to-day, and any other part of the building, that may need it,

The members of the Third street M. E. Shurch South (Sehon Chapel,) in this city, with almost entire unanimity, have withdrawn from the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the Louisville Conference, on account of the rule requiring an absolute removal of the preacher at the end of very two years, and elected themselves into an dependent congregation.

We understand that the Chuch has succeeded a securing the services of the Rev. G. W. Smiley (their former pastor) for a term of five years, and that he has already entered upon his duties as pastor of the congregation.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL.—The past week has been one of gayety. The Mechanics' Fair, Theatre, Soirees, Hops, &c., have been the order of amusements. The series of "Hops" given at the National Hotel were the center of attraction and enjoyment. Thursday night last we were present at the Ball given by the proprietor of the National. C. URBAN, Esq.: Dear Sir—We take pleasure mex pressing our entire satisfaction in the utility of you salamander Safes, of which we had two in use at ou liquer and Rectifying establishment, on Sycamore street at the late severe conflagration. Surrounded by the most combustible material, and remaining for nearly two days in the burning ruins, our suprise was beyond description in finding, after opening-said Safes everything in good order. In tendering to you our sincere gratification, we do not hesitate to recommend your Safes to those in want of such an article, as we know from experience that they truly are what they represent to be, "fire proof." We remain very truly yours, Philadelphia, March 16, 1863.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsic, but never have I been more distressingly afficted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, herous irritability, despondency, a sense of weigat in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Forthantely, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elivir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and ner rous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost mi raculous, and my object in writing to you is—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.
